Luxury Experience Guide

Introducing Tara: CAPTURING MEMORIES IN GOLD

Tara Lois' reputation sets her out as an important young designer in the international jewellery scene.

She is an award-winning jewellery designer and goldsmith, recognised for her exceptional craftsmanship and commitment to sustainability.

With a multicultural background and a deep passion for jewellery, Tara hand crafts custom-made pieces that capture personal stories and emotions, making her stand out in the industry.

"Designing and wearing jewellery is like embarking on a transformative journey; it's a dance of creativity and self-expression, where every piece becomes a cherished chapter in the story of our lives."

Tara Lois has been working with precious metals and gemstones for over 10 years, and is one of Malta's top contemporary jewellery designers, working almost exclusively for international clients from Dubai to New York and Hawaii, from the UK to Australia.

Her jewellery has featured in Vogue and Vanity Fair as well as having been exhibited internationally. She has won prestigious international awards including a London 'Jewellery Oscar' and several Maltese awards.

She creates jewellery for men, women and children and loves listening to clients' stories of life events or vacation memories which then inspire her custom designs.

One of her specialities is redesigning old and inherited jewellery into modern wearable pieces, to retain their sentimental value.

Tara works online with clients around the world, but those visiting Gozo can enjoy an in person Jewellery Design Experience.

She also offers Jewellery Making and Wedding Ring Making Experiences.

THE LOCATION

THE MAGIC OF GOZO

Gozo is one of the Mediterranean's best kept secrets. The second island in the Maltese archipelago, it has so much to offer the discerning traveller looking for a luxurious escape.

The landscape is stunning combining terraced hills like Bali, lush green colours in winter like Ireland, sheer cliffs on one side like Maui, carpets of spring wildflowers, traditional salt pans, the Inland Sea and Ramla Bay beach where turtles have started hatching again. In Gozo you can enjoy relaxation with yoga or sunbathing on the beach, to more active coastal walks and swimming in secret bays, through to extreme sports like cliff climbing.

Tara's studio is nestled in the tranquil Ta'Pinu valley leading down to the sea and home to the famous basilica. Clients get to enjoy these views and a sneak peek at the inside her fully accessible luxury Gozitan villa on their way to her studio.

The history of Gozo will also amaze. There are said to be some of the oldest manmade structures in the world (UNESCO world heritage site), standing stone circles, Punic temples, and ancient unexplained cart ruts.

Phoenicians and Romans brought viniculture, making Gozo one of the oldest wine growing regions in the world. The Maltese language and the main town is also knows as Rabat indicating Arabic influences. The Knights of the Order of St John especially transformed Gozo when they fortified the hilltop Cittadella, which has awe inspiring views across the whole island. You can also see where Napoleon landed and the British also left their mark, as English is the second official language.

Music is everywhere on Gozo. Outstanding classical recitals by international musicians in impressive churches, modern music by the sea, and opera fans come from around the world for performances at the two opera houses. Festa's are where Gozitans let their hair down and enjoy music performed by their own village's brass band and fireworks which would not look out of place on Sydney Bridge at New Years.

But what makes Gozo even more extraordinary is the multi-cultural population, of whom so many are artists inspired by the island and its tranquillity. These include both undiscovered and internationally acclaimed painters, contemporary artists, ceramicists, glass blowers, sculptors, mosaic artists and of course, Tara and her jewellery.

To stay, there are boutique hotels, converted farm houses and several 5* hotels on the island. The Kempinski, a short walk from the Tara Lois Jewellery studio, recommends Tara to their guests looking for a luxury designer jewellery experience.

THE POWER OF JEWELLERY

EXPRESS WHO YOU ARE WITHOUT SAYING A WORD

Jewellery possesses an extraordinary power, transcending its material form, to craft a unique and enchanting experience. With every gleaming gemstone, delicate metalwork, and intricate design, jewellery becomes more than just an accessory—it becomes a symbol of self-expression and individuality.

When you adorn yourself with carefully chosen pieces you create a personal narrative, intertwining emotions, memories, and aspirations. Each necklace, ring, or bracelet has the ability to evoke emotions, capture moments, and amplify inner beauty.

The act of selecting and wearing jewellery is an intimate ritual, a visual expression of your identity and style.

It holds the power to grow your self confidence, recall memories, or even be a source of inspiration.

From heirlooms passed down through generations to bespoke creations reflecting personal stories, jewellery carries the transformative power to craft a truly unique and unforgettable experience.

EXPERIENCE 1: LUXURY JEWELLERY DESIGN

DESIGNING YOUR EXCLUSIVE JEWELLERY

Tara designs for clients around the world, and hand crafts the jewellery in her studio.

Those who come to Malta receive a sneak preview of her fully accessible luxury villa with stunning views over the Ta'Pinu Valley to the sea.

The design experience starts with a tour of her studio before moving into the Conservatory Room, where clients can choose from a range of beverages including premium Maltese wine.

Ideally, clients will have started an online conversation with Tara before arriving in Gozo, especially if they would like her to remodel their heirloom jewellery. Then they can decide what to bring with them.

If possible Tara will already have designs prepared, ready to discuss.

For further information see the Terms & Conditions at www.TaraLoisJewellery.com

What to expect:

- The initial consultation is complimentary. It is an opportunity for you to meet Tara.
- Tara will ask about your commission, special memories, hopes, the sentimental value of old jewellery and your budget.

Design phase:

- You receive 3 initial designs on digital mood boards. You may choose one of these or ask for an additional revision.
- Once you approve a final design Tara will establish the cost and timing.

Hand crafting your design:

- Tara remains in regular contact with updates and photos until completed.

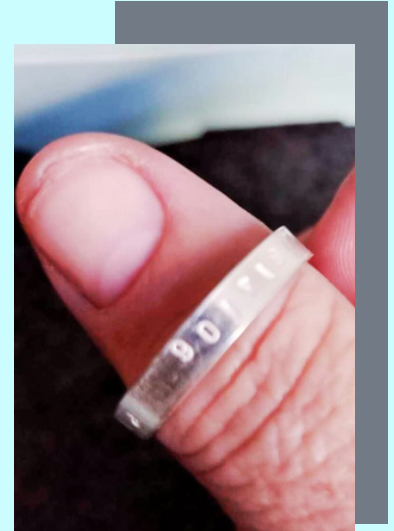

Shipping:

- We ship using the same company as Ferrari, at the client's expense.
